DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, lines 5-13, the expression "wherein the casing halves.....hold the transmission housing (18) in a centered, rotationally fixed manner without play" is exactly unclear; in line 9, the phrase "in particular ones" is unclear what applicant is referring to; and in lines 6,9,10,11, the phrase "in particular" is unclear.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-14 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the art of record considered as a whole, alone or in combination, neither anticipates nor renders obvious a cordless screwdriver having "casing halves (16,17) of a motor housing (12) with C-shaped ends adjoining the transmission housing (18) that engage annular groove (54) and annular bead (53) with corresponding counterpart profile permitting the casing halves to be axially and radially hold the transmission housing (18) in a centered, rotationally fixed without play in a non-detachable manner” in the combination as claimed in claim 1.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Soreo et al., Kilmer et al., Zapf, Chunn et al., Su et al. disclose screwdriver having casing halves.
